News Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 14th, 2013 (Highland Park, Texas) Highland Park Department of Public Safety detectives have completed their investigation into the circumstances that surround the death of Mr. John R. Steele. The entirety of the physical evidence was evaluated with numerous items sent to the Dallas County Medical Examiner's office for forensics. The findings remain consistent with the original conclusion of the Medical Examiner's report for the cause and manner of death. There will be no criminal charges filed secondary to this investigation.
