Town of Highland Park Awarded Achievement for Excellence

(November 6, 2013) – The Certificate of Achievement for Excellence in Financial Reporting has been awarded to the Town of Highland Park by the Government Finance Officers Association of the United States and Canada (GFOA) for its Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR). The Certificate of Achievement is the highest form of recognition in the area of governmental accounting and financial reporting, and its attainment represents a significant accomplishment by a government and its management. Bill Pollock, Director of Finance for the Town of Highland Park, was individually recognized and received the Award of Financial Reporting Achievement for the preparation and submission of the award-winning Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR). An impartial panel reviewed the CAFR which met their highest standards as well as the, “spirit of full disclosure.”

“This achievement represents our dedication to the community,” added Bill Lindley, Town Administrator. “The goal of transparency and thoroughness is communicated at all levels. This award reflects Bill Pollock’s commitment to the highest standards in financial reporting.”

The GFOA is a nonprofit professional association serving approximately 17,500 government finance professionals.
