Highland Park to Honor Retired Judge at Arbor Day Celebration

April 23, 2015 (Highland Park, Texas) – National Arbor Day is held annually on the last Friday in April. The date is an opportunity to plant, nurture and celebrate trees in our environment. Every year the Parks Department plants a tree to commemorate Arbor Day and the Town recognizes Arbor Day in the form of a resolution. This year a red oak tree will be planted in Hackberry Creek Park to honor Judge Pat Robertson's 44 years of dedicated service to the Town of Highland Park. Judge Robertson retired in June, 2014, after serving 44 years as the Town's municipal court judge.

The tree dedication ceremony will begin Friday, April 24, 2015, at 10:00 a.m. in Hackberry Creek Park. The park area is located on the west side of St. Johns Drive at Cornell Avenue. The tree dedication ceremony for Judge Robertson will include the installation of a bench and plaque to recognize Pat Robertson's 44 years of service as the Town's judge.
